Product Features

PROVEN BIOMECHANICS

The back pad of the Resolute Leg Press is angled at 35 degrees to encourage proper exerciser form and provides the optimum position for transmitting force to the platform without spinal compression. The oversized, fixed footplate offers a stable platform to work from.

DESIGNED TO GO THE DISTANCE

Sealed ball-bearings traveling on chrome plated rails means quieter operation. Over-sized steel tubing lends a sleek, contemporary shape and a more durable product. Tested to 250,000 cycles, the Resolute Leg Press is designed to go the distance.

FOCUSED ON THE EXPERIENCE

Thoughtful design elements like the integrated step ledge allow exercisers to enter and exit the Resolute Leg Press with ease. Once seated, exercisers can easily personalize the fit and the weight load. Our patented add-on weight requires just a flip of a switch.
